

Taste Muscatel with all your five senses in Benitachell

Publishing date 8/03/2019

On Saturday March 16, the town of Benitachell in Alicante invites you to discover the properties of Muscatel wine with each and every one of your senses. You will participate in the whole process of elaboration, from the care of the grape to the tasting of the delicious Muscatel wine, one of the excellent products in the highly appreciated gastronomy of Alicante.

Benitachell enjoys a wonderful situation between sea and inland in the province of Alicante, it makes of its sunny lands the ideal place where to grow the muscatel grape, from which the sweet wine to which it gives its name is extracted . On Saturday March 16, the municipality of Alicante wants you to enjoy a day of gastronomy and nature with the route Degusta Muscatel wine with your 5 senses, in which you will discover all the properties of this drink and, in addition, you will participate in the careful process to elaborate it.

Before tasting Muscatel, the professionals who will accompany you on this visit will make you experience touching and watching. The Mediterranean Sea will be the scenery for the grapes to prune in the same field, following the indications of the farmers participating in the BioMoscatell project, an initiative promoted by the Town Council with the aim of producing wines free from chemicals through the ecological cultivation of the traditional Muscatel grape. Meanwhile, you can enjoy the tranquillity of the environment and the peaceful sounds from the natural landscape of the land by the sea.

Once touch, hearing and sight have been properly cared for, it comes the time to fill your smell and taste. On the field, you will be able to taste the products derived from muscatel to finish the route in the municipal market, where a tasting of natural wines and mistelas will take place, which you will love, without any doubt.

Benitachell is known for hiding very special places, such as Cala dels Testos or Cala del Moraig. Various routes will give you the opportunity to explore the municipality along the countryside or enjoy stunning views on the cliff route, among many other points of interest.
