Towns and cities - Alicante Costa Blanca

Teulada-Moraira has the good fortune of having two urban centres that double the area's history, traditions and customs. Located in the Marina Alta, its enchantment lies in its spectacular growth, while preserving its privileged environment. Teulada-Moraira is a tourism centre that is well-known for its lovely beaches, its interesting historical centre, the quality of its wines and its fantastic fish auction. Its coastal orientation and the mountains surrounding it from behind provide a microclimate with an average annual temperature of 18 degrees, guaranteeing that its charm can be enjoyed most of the year. Teulada-Moraira is committed in the present and the future to preserving the environment and serving its residents and visitors. It seeks to preserve the local natural resources, traditions and customs for tomorrow, by maintaining sustainable development today.
