On the menu, you will find all flavours of the land, from a variety of classic rice dishes (rice with lobster, rice "A banda", paella, black rice ...), to meats cooked in all its forms (rabbit, lamb, veal, chicken...). Also, fresh fish from the market such as sea bream, emperor, shellfish or calamari. They serve all sorts of classic starters to open your mouth: from "bravas de la casa" (potatoes with aioli) to eel in salsa, calamari, razor clams or snails.

The story of this family restaurant goes back to the 50s. At that time, it was the grandparents Vicente "El Perrico" and the grandmother Vicenta "La Petrolina" who started the local business. The nicknames of the first generation pay tribute to the charming place today.

In the beginning, the restaurant had a typical vine outside that helped to cool off the summer. Later, they added a window on the terrace and expanded all service areas and kitchen as well as the car park. Always adapting and giving the best service to customers. In the restaurant "El Perrico" you can celebrate any event: family reunions, banquets for communions, business meals ... A cosy venue with a friendly service that will make you feel at home.
