Offer description:

The Hotel Reig is located halfway between the beach and the mountain. It is a small family establishment with a modern touch where you can enjoy an unforgettable stay.

The Hotel Reig [4] is located in a unique enclave in the town of Pego. From the building, you can see the nearby landscape of the mountain and enjoy the views over the sea, which is just a step away by car (only 7 kilometers away). The establishment has been open since the 80s and it has managed to adapt to the times without losing its personal touch with its family management.

At your disposal, you will find 21 rooms divided into doubles, triples and family rooms. Each of them has its own fully equipped bathroom as well as air conditioning, television and Wi-Fi.

Among the services available at the Hotel Reig there is a cafeteria, restaurant, access for people with reduced mobility, luggage storage, TV room and games for the whole family. Its location between Gandia and Dénia will offer you a wide range of leisure activities and activities in nature only a step away.

Optional services:

The municipality of Pego [5] belongs to the district of Marina Alta. It is a village surrounded by nature and mountains and a few kilometers from the Mediterranean. The Marjal de Pego Natural Park is a dream area, ideal to discover on foot or by bicycle through several routes. To discover the town of Pego, you have to wander along its medieval streets, through the door of the old wall, by its churches and feel the kindness of its people.
