La Fiesta de Todos los Santos (All Saints Fair) of Cocentaina is one of the most established festivals in Region of Valencia. It has been held since the year 1346 due to a privilege of King Pere IV Cerimoniós. That old tradition that every year attract thousands of visitors has been declared National Tourist Interest Festivity in 2012.

Agriculture machinery, vehicles, irrigation systems, old utensils and traditional food can be found at the Fair. Each year more than 400,000 people come and visit the town for four days. Also, a medieval market is set in the Vila, and an Islamic market and in the Arrabal as well.
