The diversity of the maritime scenes offered by the Costa Blanca, make the district of Marina Baixa the ideal destination for lovers of aquatic motorbikes. You can enjoy the open sea crossings around the Sierra Helada area, thus reaching seductive and peaceful coves. The boom that these water motorbikes have been experiencing in recent years is obvious given that they offer great advantages, making them one of the most desirable options for enjoying the different scenic spots offered by the beaches of this district. The routes offered include transport from the place where the client is staying to the embarkation area. On offer are excursions with up to 4 departures on a daily basis and courses for those wishing to go more in depth into this thrilling world.
