Rural tourism is an ideal way to spend a few days getting closer to nature, in the mountains, the countryside or by the sea. The Region of Valencia has a wide range of rural tourism options, something to suit everyone, along with comfortable accommodation offering top-of-the-range services. Get ready for adventure and take part in a number of active tourism activities, and be captivated by the traditions of the villages scattered throughout the Costa Blanca, Valencia Terra i Mar and Castellón Costa Azahar. By opting for rural tourism, you can explore the Region of Valencia further inland by following its official signposted routes and paths, which will take you into protected areas with a beautiful natural kaleidoscope of landscapes.
